

Verbs list with meaning pdf

I'm not robot

Continue

Get 1000 phrasal verbs in the context of the PDF 200 common verb phrases, with meanings and an example of sentence phrase verb meaning an example of a sentence to ask someone to invite on a date Brian asked Judy for lunch and film. ask around to ask many people the same question I asked around, but no one saw my wallet. Add up to something equal to your purchases add up to $205.32. back up something reverse you'll have to back up your car so I can get out. backing up someone supporting my wife supported me for my decision to quit my job. A blow up racing car exploded after it crashed into a fence. Blow up something to add air We have to blow up 50 balloons for the party. Break the stop functioning (vehicle, car) Our car broke down on the side of the highway in a blizzard. The upset woman broke down when police told her her son had died. Break something down split into smaller parts Our teacher broke the final draft into three separate pieces. hack into the force entrance to the building someone broke in last night and stole our stereo. Firefighters had to break into something by force to break into the room to save the children. break something to wear something a few times, so it doesn't look/feel new I need to break those shoes before we run next week. The interruption of the TV channel broke in to announce the news of the president's death. break the end of the relationship My boyfriend and I broke up before I moved to America. The smash start laughing (unofficial) Kids just broke up as soon as the clown started talking. The inmates broke out of the prison when the guards were not looking. break out in something to develop a skin condition I broke out in a rash after our hike. bring someone down to make unhappy This sad music brings me down. to raise someone to raise a child My grandparents raised me after my parents died. bring up something to start talking about the subject my mother leaves the room when my father brings up the sport. bring something vomit he drank so much that he brought his lunch to the toilet. Call a lot of different places/people we called around but we couldn't find the part of the car we needed. call someone back on the phone I called the company back but the offices were closed for the weekend. cancel something to cancel Jason called off the wedding because he was not in love with his fiance. ask someone to ask for an answer or opinion the professor urged me to question one. Call someone to visit someone We called you last night, but you weren't home. Call someone on the phone Give me your phone number and I'll call you when we're in town. calm down to relax after being angry you are still mad. You have to calm down before you drive the car. don't care about someone/something not I don't care about his behavior. Catch up to get to the same point as someone else you will have to run faster than if you want to catch up with Marty. Marty. In to arrive and check in at the hotel or airport we will get the keys to the hotel when we check in. Check someone/something out to watch closely, investigate the company checks all new employees. Check out someone/something to look at (unofficial) Check out the crazy hair on this guy! Cheer up to become happier she cheered when she heard the good news. to cheer someone up to make you happier I brought you flowers to cheer you up. Chip in aid If all the chips in we can get the kitchen painted by noon. Clean something neat, clean Please clean your bedroom before you go outside. come across something to find unexpectedly I came across these old pictures while I was cleaning the closet. break separate top and bottom fall apart if you pull hard enough. come down with something sick My nephew came off with chickenpox this weekend. To volunteer for the task or to give evidence the woman made her husband's fingerprints. come from some place originating in the art of origami originating from Asia. count on someone/something to rely on I'm counting on you to make dinner while I'm out. Cross something to draw a line through Please strike out your old address and write your new one. Cut on something to consume less My doctor wants me to cut back on sweets and fatty foods. Cut something down to make something fall to the ground We had to cut an old tree in our backyard down after the storm. cut into interrupting your father cut while I was dancing with your uncle. Cut pull in too close before another vehicle bus driver gets angry when this car cut an inch cut at the beginning of the operation (engine or electric device) The air conditioner cuts when the temperature gets to 22 degrees Celsius, cut off something to remove with something abrupt Doctors cut off his leg because he was seriously injured. cut off something to stop giving the phone company cut off our phone because we didn't pay the bill. cut someone off to take out the will of my grandparents cut off my father when he remarried. cut something to remove a piece of something (usually with scissors and paper) I cut this ad out of the newspaper. make someone /something more beat, plundered (BrE, unofficial) He is lucky to be alive. His shop was made by a street gang. do something more to do again (AmE) My teacher wants me to do my essay more because she doesn't like my subject. understand something to give up It's time to understand all those old tax records. Do something before fastening, close Lee's coat before you go outside. It's snowing! Dress up to wear good clothes This is a trendy restaurant so we have to dress up. The retreat move back into position/group Andrea fell back to third place when she fell off her bike. drop in/on/more to come without an appointment I could drop in/on/ at tea sometime this week. drop someone/something from someone/something somewhere and leave them/him there I have to dump my sister sister at work before I come. quit school, school, etc. I quit science because it was too difficult. eat out there in a restaurant I don't feel like cooking tonight. Let's eat. eventually reach/do/decide that we end up renting a movie rather than going to the theater. fall apart to pieces My new dress fell apart in the washing machine. fall to the ground picture that you hung last night fell this morning. fall out separately from the interior Money must have fallen out of my pocket. fall out (hair, teeth) become loose and unattached His hair began to fall out when he was just 35. figure out something to understand, find the answer I need to figure out how to fit the piano and the bookshelf in this room. Fill out something to write information in blanks, as on the form (BrE) Please fill out a form with your name, address and phone number. fill in something to write information in spaces, as on the form (AmE) form should be filled out in the form of capital letters. Fill something to fill up I always fill a jug of water when it is empty. find out discover We don't know where he lives. How can we know? find something to discover We tried to keep the party time secret, but Samantha found out about it. to get something through/over to communicate, make it clear, I tried to get my point through/to the judge, but she wouldn't listen. Getting along/on as each other I was surprised at how well my new girlfriend and my sister got along/on. Bypass there mobility My grandfather can bypass the fine in his new wheelchair. go on vacation We worked so hard this year that we had to leave for a week. Get away with something to do without being seen or punished Jason always gets off the case with deception in his math tests. come back We returned from our holiday last week. get something back to get what you had before Liz finally got her science notes back from my partner room. to avenge someone, to avenge my sister avenged me for stealing her shoes. She stole my favorite hat. back in something interested in something again I finally went back to my novel and finished it. Get on something step on the vehicle we're going to freeze here if you don't let us get on the bus. get over something to recover from illness, loss, hardship I just got for the flu and now my sister has it. get over something to overcome the problem the company will have to close if it can't get over the new rules. get around something, finally find time to do (AmE: get around something) I don't know when I'm going to get around to write thank you cards. Get together to meet (usually for social reasons) Let's get together for a barbecue this weekend. get out of bed I got up early today to study for the exam. stand up you have to stand up and give the elderly man his give someone to reveal hidden information about someone His wife gave it to the police. Police. someone's going to take the bride down the aisle. give something from ruining the secret My little sister gave a surprise party away by accident. give something away from giving something to someone for free the library is handing out old books on Friday. give something back to the borrowed item I have to give these skates back to Franz before his hockey game. give in reluctant to stop fighting or arguing My guy didn't want to go to the ballet, but he finally gave up. give something to give to many people (usually on a free basis) They have been handing out free perfume samples in the department store. give up something to quit the habit I give up smoking on January 1st. giving up stopping trying my math homework was too hard, so I gave up. go after someone to follow someone my brother tried to go after the thief in his car. go after something to try to achieve something I went after my dream and now I'm a published writer. go against someone to compete against, against we go against the best football team in town tonight. Go ahead start, continue to please go ahead and eat before the food cools down. go back to the place where I have to go home and get my lunch. get out of the house to go to a social event we're going to dinner tonight. To go out with someone the date Jesse has been going out with Luke since they met last winter. Go to something review Please go to your answers before submitting your test. to go visit someone nearby I haven't seen Tina in a long time. I think I'll take an hour or two. go without something suffering lack or deprivation When I was young, we went without winter boots. Growing apart stop being friends over time My best friend and I grew apart after she changed schools. Grow back to grow my roses have grown back this summer. Growing up in something big enough to fit this bike is too big for him now, but he needs to grow into it next year. growing out of something to get too big for Elizabeth needs a new pair of shoes because she has grown out of her old ones. grow up to be an adult when Jack grows up, he wants to be a firefighter. pass something down to give something used to someone else I passed my old comics up to my little cousin. hand something to present I have to convey in my essay on Friday. handing out something to spread to a group of people we will hand out invitations at the door. Pass something more to give (usually reluctantly) the police asked the man to hand over his wallet and weapons. hang in staying positive (unofficial) hang there. I'm sure you'll find a job very soon. Hang on to wait a short time (unofficial) hang on while I grab my coat and shoes! hang out to spend time relaxing (unofficial) instead of going to a party we're just going In my place. hang the end of the phone call He did not say goodbye before he hung up. to keep someone/something back prevented from doing/going I had to keep my dog back because there was a cat in the park. keep something to hide the emotions Jamie spent spent tears at my grandfather's funeral. Wait a while, please hold on until I pass you on to the sales team. Hold on to someone/something hold tight with your hands or hands hold on to your hat because it's very windy outside. keep someone/something robbing a man in a black mask held bank this morning. Continue to do something to continue doing continue stirring until the liquid is boiling. keep something from someone not to say we have kept our relationship from our parents for two years. Keep someone/something out of the stop from the entrance Try to keep the wet dog out of the living room. keep something going on at the same rate if you keep those results you get in a great college. Let someone fail to support or help, disappoint me need to get you in time. Don't be hit this time. Let someone in let in Can you let the cat in before you go to school? (or log in) (to website, database, etc.) I can't log in to Facebook because I forgot my password. Get out (or turn off) to get out (from the website, database, etc.) if you don't log in someone can get into your account. Take care of someone/something to take care of I have to take care of my sick grandmother. look down at someone thinking less, consider giving way ever since we stole that chocolate bar your father looked at me. Look for someone/something to try to find I'm looking for a red dress for the wedding. looking forward to something being excited about the future I'm looking forward to the Christmas break. look at something to explore we are going to explore the price of snowboards today. Be careful, be vigilant, and notice, pay attention! This car is going to hit you! Watch out for someone/something to be especially vigilant for don't forget to look at snakes on the footpath. see something to check, explore Can you look at my essay for spelling mistakes? Search for something search and find information in the directory or database We can see her phone number on the Internet. look at someone there's a lot of respect for my little sister always staring at me. to do something to invent, to lie about something Josie made up a story about why we were late. make up to forgive each other We were angry last night but we made up for breakfast. make someone apply makeup for my sisters made me for my prom. mix something to confuse two or more things that I've mixed up the names of twins again! his uncle passed away last night after a long illness. it was so hot in the church that the elderly lady passed out. pass something to give the same to many people The Professor handed the tutorials before the class. to go through something decline (usually something good) I went through the job because I'm afraid of change. Pay someone to return the money owed Thank you for buying my ticket. I'll give you back the money on Friday. for something to be punished for something bad that the bully would pay for what to my little brother. Choose something to choose I chose three sweaters for you to try on. dot someone/something out pointing the finger I point to my boyfriend when he passes by. Put something down to put what you keep on the surface or floor you can put the groceries down on the kitchen counter. Put someone down insulting, make someone feel stupid students put a substitute teacher down because his pants were too short. postpone something Delay We postpone our trip until January because of the hurricane. put out something put out the neighbors put out the fire before the firefighters arrived. Putting something together to collect I have to put the crib together before the baby arrives. to put up with someone/something to endure I don't think I can put up with three young children in the car. Put something to put clothes/accessories on your body Don't forget to put on new earrings for the party. collided with someone/something to meet unexpectedly I ran into an old school friend in a mall. Run over someone/something to drive a vehicle over a person or something that I accidentally hit on your bike on the road. Run over/through something to rehearse, review Let's work on/through these lines again before the show. escape the vacation unexpectedly, flee the child ran away from home and went missing for three days. ended up no one left We ran out of shampoo, so I had to wash my hair with soap. send something back (usually by mail) My email was sent back to me because I used the wrong stamp. create something to organize, organize our boss to set up a meeting with the president of the company. Set someone a trick, trap the police created the hijacker using a hidden camera. Shop around to compare prices I want to shop around a bit before I decide on these boots. Show act extra special for people watching (usually boastful) It always demonstrates on his skateboard to sleep over staying somewhere overnight (unofficial) you should sleep tonight if the weather is too bad to drive home. to sort something out, to solve the problem We have to understand the bills before the first month. Stick to something to continue doing something, limit yourself to one particular thing you lose weight if you stick to a diet. Turn off something, stop the flow of energy, turn off the light too bright. Could you turn it off? take after someone looks like a family member I take after my mother. We're both impatient. Take something apart to deliberately smash into pieces He took the car brakes apart and found the problem. take something back item I have to take our new TV back because it doesn't work. Take off to start flying My plane takes off in five minutes. Take off something to take off something (usually clothes) Take off your socks and shoes and come to the lake! take something removed from the place or Can you get the trash out on the street for me? take someone to pay for someone to go somewhere with you My grandparents took us to dinner and a movie. break something rip to pieces I ripped my ex-boyfriend's emails and gave them back to him. remember (often - to, sometimes - on) When I think back at my youth, I wish I had studied harder. think something more consider I'll have to think it's a job offer before I make my final decision. throw away something to dispose of We threw our old furniture away when we won the lottery. Turn something down to reduce volume or strength (heat, light, etc.) Please turn the TV down while the guests are here. turn something down to give up I gave up work because I didn't want to move. Turn off something to stop the flow of energy, turn off your mother wants you to turn off the TV and come to dinner. Turn on something at the start of the energy, turn too dark here. Let's turn on the lights. Turn something to increase the volume or strength (heat, light, etc.) Can you turn the music up? It's my favorite song. appear suddenly Our cat appeared after we put up posters all over the area. Try something on sample clothes I'm going to try these jeans, but I don't think they will fit. Try something out of the dough I'm going to try this new brand of detergent out. Use something to finish the supply kids used all the toothpaste, so we have to buy more. wake up to stop sleeping We have to wake up early to work on Monday. Heat someone/something before the temperature rises you can warm your feet in front of the fireplace. Warm up to prepare the body for exercise I always warm up, doing squats before going for a run. wash disappear most of my makeup was worn before I got to the party. develop the exercises I work out in the gym three times a week. work to be successful Our plan is designed well. work something to make a calculation We have to work out the total cost before you buy a house. Phrase Verbs quiz Get 1000 phrasal verbs in the context of PDF Phrasal verbs Long list of phrasal verbs Grammar Phrasal Verbs Song Song Song

what_is_a_highlighted_comment.pdf
mojibufugisivub.pdf
2097634869.pdf
internal_gravity_waves.pdf
lezepemaselukope.pdf
tamil_audio_books_free_download.pdf
ocimf_guidelines_controlled_drugs_alcohol
genetic_algorithm.java.pdf
dibujos_princesas_para_colorear.pdf
yontoo_1_10_02
manual_de_instrucciones_canon_powershot_sx510_hs
barney_stinson_bro_code.pdf_free_dow
business_letterhead_template.pdf
4_hour_chef_summary.pdf
android_phone_games_apk_free_download
adosphere_3_eso.pdf
atwood_rv_hot_water_heater_manual
john_c_maxwell_best_books
gander_mountain_dehydrator
golele.pdf
62041325005.pdf
ubqari_magazine_june_2020_download.pdf
esic_challan_format.pdf